CIA ROLE SEEN IN ABDUCTION OF BEN BARKA

Cairo MENA in Arabic 1845 GMT 15 May 1966--C/L (FOR OFFICIAL USE ONLY)

(Text) London--Faris Glubb (son of former commander of the Arab Legion, Gen. John Glubb--ed.) revealed here today that American intelligence participated in kidnaping Moroccan opposition leader Ben Barka. Faris Glubb said that he has proof that the CIA took part in the abduction of the Moroccan leader. He added that he intends to resign his post as secretary of the movement for the liberation of the British colonies because the movement has prevented him from mentioning this fact in a letter of protest which was to have been sent to the U.S. ambassador in London.

Faris Glubb was speaking at a Palestine Day rally organized in London today by the Federation of Arab Students in the United Kingdom and Ireland. He also said that the Palestine question was never one of the issues which the movement for the liberation of the British colonies had ever sponsored.
